

For immediate release
April 1, 2024

Daubert Cromwell Names Global Business Development Manager

ALSIP, IL – Global manufacturer Daubert Cromwell, leading provider of anti-corrosion packaging for industry, has named Bill Simonson to the position of Global Business Development Manager.

Simonson, who resides in Grosse Pointe, MI, joined Daubert Cromwell in 2015 as Regional Sales Manager for Michigan and Ontario. In 2017 he added responsibilities as Strategic Account Manager.

In this new position, he will help coordinate corrosion prevention solutions to multi-national OEMs and suppliers in automotive, aerospace, electronics, military, and other fabricated metal parts markets. He will also be involved in building international networks to promote and sell Daubert Cromwell VCI products in a wide range of metalworking industries.

Simonson is a graduate of Central Michigan University. He has a professional background in industrial chemical sales and distribution management. He can be reached direct at bsimoson@daubercromwell.com, or call 313-71-3900.

For further information about Daubert Cromwell and its VCI packaging products and rust preventive liquids for industry, see www.daubercromwell.com; 800-535-3535.

About Daubert Cromwell

Since the 1940s, the Daubert companies have set industry standards in corrosion prevention packaging. Today Daubert Cromwell VCI products are used in automotive, heavy equipment, electronics, military, and fabricated metal markets worldwide. Corporate offices are in USA, Europe, Brazil, China, and Mexico, with distribution and manufacturing networks in 46 countries.